

Quality Evaluation of Textiles and Garments (QETG - DLP)

Quality evaluation is an integral part of textile or apparel manufacturing activities. The program is designed for managers, executives and technicians associated with inspection, testing and quality control activities in the textile and garment industry. The program lays special emphasis on scientific systems & procedures essential for evaluation of textiles & garments.

Program Content:

Module 1- Quality Evaluation of Textile Materials

- Concept of Quality
- Quality Cost relationship
- Quality evaluation of fibres, yarns and fabrics

Module 2- Inspection and Quality Evaluation of Garments

- Inspection and its significance
- Body Measurements & Sizing Systems
- Fabric inspections systems
- Inspection and quality evaluation of trims & accessories
- In-process and final quality inspection
- Statistical Applications in textile and garment industry

